

March 2002 Newsletter

Are you risking disappointment?

Last year so many people postponed their travel plans because of the outbreak of Foot & Mouth in the UK (thankfully all cleared now); the weak dollar (happy days, it's improved and steady now) and September 11 (improved safety measures in place) that there are many, many more people travelling this year, especially as air fares are also at bargain levels!

We were very pleasantly shocked to see how the number of hits on our website has just exploded over the corresponding period last year. The number of bookings and enquiries have increased accordingly, so much so that we have had to take on more and more staff to cope with the sheer volume. So at this time, we'll take the opportunity to apologise to anyone who has had to wait a day or so for their quotes. We apologise and assure you that we do value and appreciate your enquiry and bookings.

This is all good news for Drive Travel, in our 23rd year of business, but unfortunately for you, it does mean that demand will outstrip supply. Already we are finding that we cannot satisfy demand for motorhomes in the UK and Europe and we are having trouble getting clients' first choice of canal boats.

Even with car leasing we are experiencing problems....unbelievably, certain vehicle allocations have already been sold out. This must be due to the fantastic Earlybird specials this year...certainly the best I've seen for many years. Cars are not such a problem but if you do need a multi seater or an automatic vehicle, we do strongly suggest prompt booking.

So folks, the moral of this story is: "Book soon or risk disappointment"
