GREAT NEWS.....

Both leasing programmes, Renault and Peugeot, have extended their Earlybird deals. Booking date is now 30April03. It seemed that many people were holding off booking until the war in Iraq started. Now that it is underway, they see that it does not really affect their travel plans and in the last 10 days, we have received a phenomenal amount of bookings. We think that most of our canal boat, motorhome and car clients realise that these would not be a terrorist target. Happily, most of our car rental Earlybird deals have also been extended. So if you need a car - just ask for a quote or check out our website.

For the history buffs. To the left is a copy of the 1984 brochure from Wilsons Self Drive run by the family of our CEO, Tony Wilson.
